

LIVING HISTORY

South Group Camping

DESIGN YOUR OWN SUMMER ADVENTURE!

Accommodations:

Book your group for one or more nights and experience the beauty of Oak Glen in your charming 20x20 colonial marquee tent furnished with well-appointed cots.

Attire:

We provide head-to-toe authentic 18th century attire for adult youth leaders and their group, or choose to take your leisure and relax in your own modern attire.

Meals:

Savor mouth-watering meals in the Hawk's Head Publick House. Visit the bakery and take home a fresh apple pie!

Activities:

Select up to five of the following activities: archery (age 8+), tomahawk throwing, country hayrides, gold panning, guided farm hikes, candle dipping, old-fashioned games, drilling & accoutrements of a colonial soldier, weaving & spinning wool, animal tending, butter making, blacksmithing demonstration, writing with quill & ink, or apple pie making!

Availability & Pricing:

MONDAY - FRIDAY
June through September
(excluding Colonial Faire dates)

MINIMUM $3,000
(accommodates 36 guests)

18TH CENTURY ATTIRE: $75 per person
ADDITIONAL DAYS FOR COSTUMES: $15 per person

Pricing includes accommodations, meals
& group's choice of five activities:

We'll also include special entertainment
in the form of live music, contra dancing,
or a performance of Patrick Henry's famous "Give Me Liberty" oration at an additional cost. Ask your reservation agent for details!

909-790-TIME
www.rilevsfarm.com

Very limited availability. Special terms and conditions may apply.
All reservations are subject to Riley's Farm terms and conditions.