

Event Promotion Agreement

1. Riley's Farm ("vendor") and _____ ("salesperson") have entered into this agreement to promote vendor's events and services.
2. Vendor will assign to salesperson a unique coupon code ("code") to be used for Rileysfarm.com online sales. Code assigned: _____
3. Whenever an online purchase is made using the code, it will result in the consumer receiving a 5% discount on the purchase.
4. In any given calendar year, the first $200 of sales referencing the code shall receive a 2% commission and all sales above $200 will receive a 5% commission on the net sale, after discount, will be paid to salesperson on or about the last day of the month, after the event has taken place.
5. Although refunds are rarely offered for admission events, no commission will be paid on a refunded event.
6. Vendor reserves the right to change the discount and commission structure of this agreement, for all sales taking place after any such change in terms.
7. Vendor reserves the right to cancel this agreement at any time, so long as any due commissions are paid.
8. Vendor is not responsible for any failure of the consumer to properly conclude the transaction with the issued code.
9. Salesperson serves in this capacity as an independent contractor; provided, however, that this provision does not alter or affect any separate employment relationship that may exist between Vendor and Salesperson.
